

Please do not change Indiana's do-not-call registry to force the "established business relationship" exemption on us. The do-not-call list is the best law the Indiana legislature has ever passed. It has made having a phone tolerable again. If the exemption is change it will make more of us have to switch to cell phones to avoid getting telemarket's calls.